Outreach Program for
MIDDLE/UPPER SCHOOL STUDENTS

C.R.E.W.™…creating solutions

Conflict Resolution Enrichment Workshops

C.R.E.W. is an EDUCATIONAL OUTREACH PROGRAM that teaches POSITIVE CONFLICT RESOLUTION SKILLS through THEATRE EDUCATION.

What is unique about C.R.E.W. is its potential to synthesize the arts with real-life problems faced by adolescents with specific focus on the pressures of Bullying and Gang Involvement. C.R.E.W. is an ensemble of THEATRE INSTRUCTORS who portray characters in a conflict situation relevant to the problems of middle/upper school students. Led by a PROFESSIONAL COUNSELOR, who serves as FACILITATOR, the C.R.E.W. ensemble guides students through the CREATION and PERFORMANCE of the conflict resolution. Using ORIGINAL SCRIPTS, they will explore the issues of BULLYING, RUMORS and ACCEPTANCE OF DIVERSITIES.

The objective of C.R.E.W. is to focus on crucial areas of student development such as: CREATIVE PROBLEM SOLVING, SELF-AWARENESS, TEAMWORK, SELF-ESTEEM and COMMUNICATION TOOLS. An INTERACTIVE SCRIPT development process involving students, teachers and members of the C.R.E.W. ensemble, will address those needs.

Building conflict resolution skills in students can help to create a stronger sense of community, alleviate violence, demonstrate that a problem has many positive solutions, and make a difference in the lives of young people.

Two models available: FEES: $600.00 for three-hour workshop (choose topic of "Rumors" or "Acceptance of our Differences") or $3,000 for twelve-week workshop (one-hour per week) Each model accommodates maximum of 30 students per group; Flexible scheduling available; Post Study Guides included.
